The harrowing aftermath of the storming of the Capitol is one of bloodshed and sickness. I will be the first to say that America is a nation founded on violent revolution, and the Declaration of Independence, as well as Enlightenment political philosophy as a whole, enshrines the right of the people to throw off a tyrannical government, should they see fit. But there was no plan. There were no leaders. It was just a mob. That is the difference between the boogaloo idea of civil war and actual civil war and revolution. Revolution must come from the top, it must be supported by elites. Trump is an elite, no matter what you think of him and he could've done a successful coup. Instead, he did not.

Officer Brian Sicknick was one of those who died during the Capitol insurrection, a veteran who opposed the Iraq War. It really is sad that Trump supporters killed someone who actually good instincts are regards war. I renew my call for Trump to be prosecuted. This has gone on long enough.
